I am joined again by one of the most passionate people I know, Dhru Shah!

He also helped me with Episode 3 - Transitioning to Private Dentistry which is one of the most listened to episodes on my podcast.

What drives you?

How you can be more engaged as a Dentist?

What are your values and how it is relevant to your career?

Where and how you can develop passion for Dentistry - the best thing is that it answers a burning question I get asked a lot - 'Jaz you've done a lot of courses, which one should I do next?' - Dhru talks about a system where you need your day list and a highlighter to figure that out yourself

How can we get more Dentists in a state of Flow

As promised in the podcast, do check out Scott Jeffrey's Value Discovery System and be sure to get your family and staff involved!
