In this podcast episode I am joined by Dr Dhru Shah, Periodontist and founder of Dentinal Tubules.

Have you been thinking about a change of scene, or to move away from the shackles of NHS Primary care Dentistry?

Many Dentists have considered making the switch to Private Dentistry. We discuss what it takes in terms of:

Investments

Mindset

Education

Early career choices

Mentorship

Above all, make sure you go in to any new career choice with decisions based upon PASSION, not upon FEAR.
